

Nuh was a Prophet of Islam.
May Allah bless Nuh.
'Alay-his-salaam

The People of Nuh were bad.
They prayed to stones.
They did not pray to Allah
alone.

Nuh told them in lots of ways.
He told them for many days.

"Pray to Allah alone.
Do what Allah likes."

That is our aim in life.

The bad people did not care.
They did not even want to hear.

But the Muslims were with Nuh.
They did not turn away.
With Nuh they took their way.

Nuh told them in lots of ways.

He told them for many days.

“Pray to Allah alone.
Do what Allah likes.”

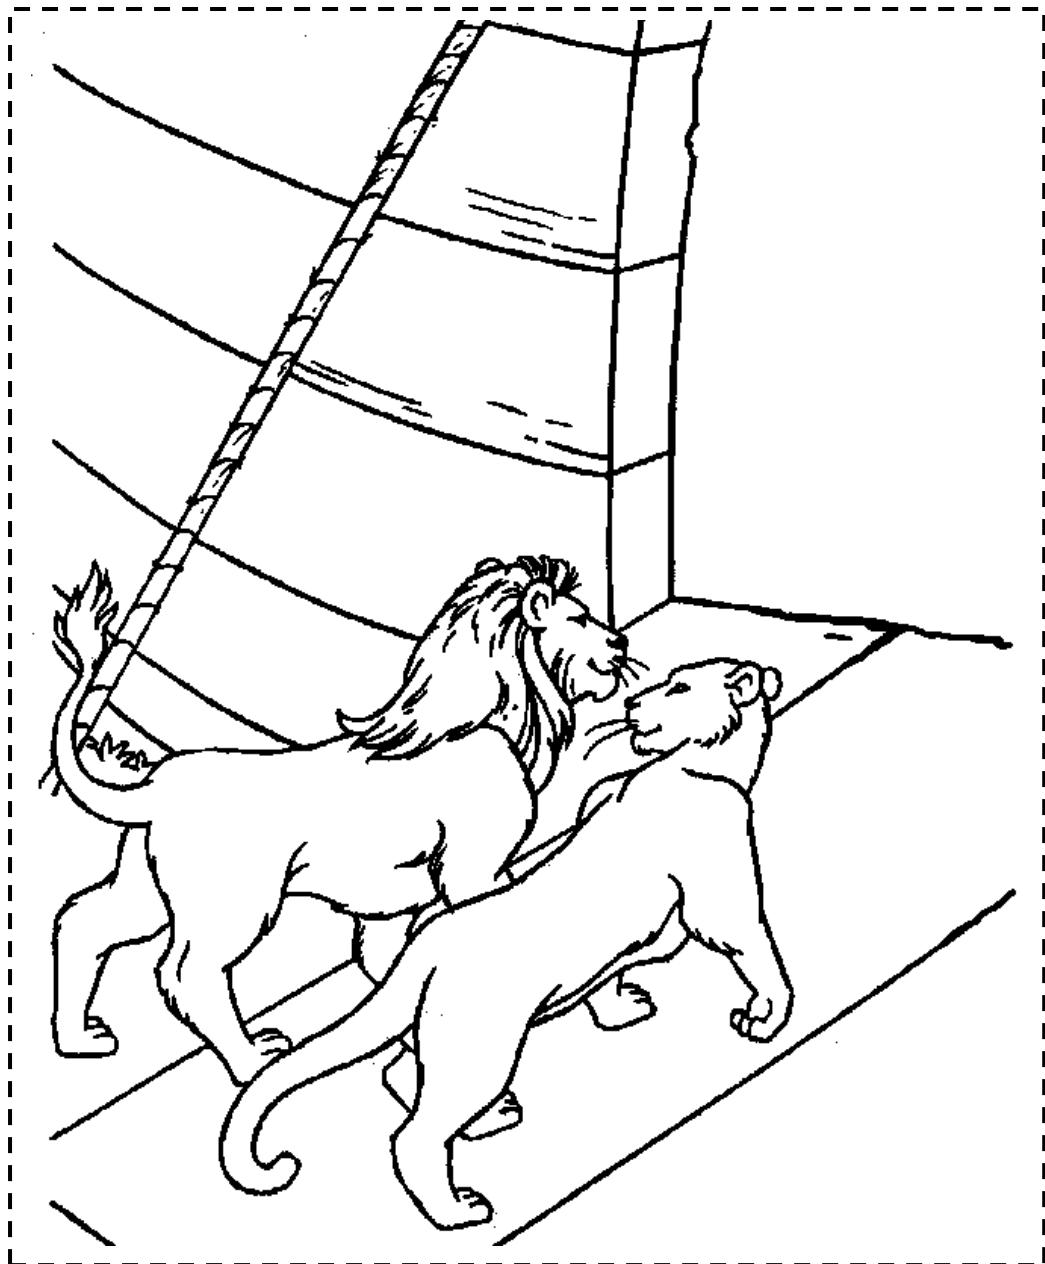

That is our aim in life.

Allah told Nuh to make a ship.

Nuh did what Allah said.
The ship was made for a very big trip.

Nuh began in the name of Allah, “Bismillah!”

Nuh went onto the ship.
The Muslims came too.
The animals were also
there,
They came along, two by two.

The bad people turned away.
The ship was not made for
play.

Allah sent lots of rain from the sky.

There was a big flood.
No place was left dry.

The sea waves grew very tall.
No place was safe at all.

The ship was the only place.
High on the waves it was safe.

The bad people had no ship to ride.

They found no place to hide.

The water washed them all away.

The ship was not made for
play.

It was all a big test.
Some time went by.

The ship came down.
It was safe on the ground.

Allah saved Nuh.
The Muslims were saved
too.

But they were only a
few.

What Nuh said was true...

“Pray to Allah alone.
Do what Allah likes.”

That is our aim in life.
